G.R.O.W. in 2009Godliness - Relationships - Outreach - Wisdom*"Remember the Lord"

Deuteronomy 4:5-9

The word Deuteronomy literally means "second law" or "repetition of the law." This book of the Bible is named this way because it is a second version of the law delivered on Mount Sinai. The first version appears in the books of Exodus, Leviticus, and Numbers. Ultimately, Deuteronomy is Moses' farewell address, and throughout the book he calls upon the Israelites to remember.

What does Moses tell the Israelites to remember?

- Remember God's _____
(Deuteronomy 7:18-19)
- Remember God's _____
(Deuteronomy 8:2)
- Remember God's _____
(Deuteronomy 8:18)
- Remember God's _____
(Deuteronomy 32:46-47)

Thought for the Day

There's a land that is fairer than day.
And by faith we can see it afar;
For the Father waits over the way,
To prepare us a dwelling-place there.
~Bennett~

The promise of heaven is our eternal hope.

Happy Father's Day!
