"Everybody, Somebody, Anybody, Nobody"

Once upon a time there were four people: Their names were Everybody, Somebody, Anybody, and Nobody.

There was an important job to be done and Everybody was asked to do it.

Everybody was sure that Somebody would do it.

Anybody could have done it, but Nobody did it.

When Nobody did it, Everybody got angry because it was Everybody's job.

Everybody thought that Somebody would do it, but Nobody realized that Nobody would do it.

So consequently Everybody blamed Somebody when Nobody did what Anybody could have done.

Does this poem sound familiar? Somebody else will help that lady whose car broke down. Somebody else will feed that homeless man standing on the side of the road. Somebody else will visit that shut-in. Somebody else will share the gospel with that family. Somebody else will teach that Bible class. Somebody else will intervene in that situation. Maybe that somebody else is supposed to be you.

Nehemiah may have thought that somebody else would rebuild the walls of Jerusalem, but when he learned that nobody had begun the rebuilding process, he took the task upon himself. If we want to rebuild the walls in our lives, we must be willing to take initiative. If we want to make a change, we must begin with ourselves.
