Volume 27 Issue 5

If someone offered you a twenty-dollar bill, would you take it? What if that person wadded up the bill and threw it on the ground - would you still want it? What if he stepped on it, kicked it, and even spit on it? Could you still go to the store and spend it?

The answer is yes. That bill has value because of what it is, not because of how it looks, where it's been, or what it has been used for. A crisp, clean twenty-dollar bill is worth the same amount as an ugly, old, abused one.

You may feel like you've been stepped on, beat up, or kicked around. You may feel dirty, unworthy, or useless. But be encouraged by the twenty-dollar bill - no matter what you've been through, you still have value to God.

Romans 8:35-39 (NKJV) - Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written: "For Your sake we are killed all day long; We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter." Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

New Prayer Requests

Elvia Bolling was unable to have stents placed last week. They found that she has an aneurysm that will need surgery first, but in order to do that she will have to be off Plavix for a while. She was to have further test later in the week.

Leilani Porter was taken back to the emergency room a couple of times last week. She is still in quite a bit of pain.

Jewell Simmons and Marie Mulkey, sisters and also relatives of Kristy Goodson, are both in the hospital. Mrs. Simmons is in Georgia and Mrs. Mulkey is in Ocoee, Florida. Mrs. Mulkey is in grave condition. Kristy will probably traveling to Orlando this weekend.

Thank You Note

I want to personally thank everyone who prepared taco soup, brought food, and helped serve at the Area Wide Devo last Sunday. It was a blessing to have so many people help with this event. It has been three years since we hosted an Area Wide Devo and each of you helped alleviate the stress of this event by your involvement. It was a wonderful evening full of delicious food, wonderful fellowship, and meaningful worship. If you weren't here you definitely missed out! Again, thank you to all of our volunteers. You are one of the reasons that Scenic Hills is a place to call home.

In Him,
Kyle
