"Not a Single One"

(Uncommon Stories and Illustrations by Jim Burns)

A third-grade boy had spent all night preparing for Valentine's Day by making everyone in his class a card. "One for Jenny, one for Mark," he said as he signed and sealed each one. It was a beautiful act of kindness for anyone, let alone a third-grader. As the boy went to bed that night, the excitement of the following day caused him to toss and turn for a while. Finally, he settled his thoughts. "It will be Valentine's Day soon," he thought to himself as he drifted off to sleep.

The next day, the boy ran to his classroom and began placing the cards he had made into the other children's special envelopes. He noticed that his was empty, but he told himself that he would check again after the first class was finished. Again he checked, and nothing. Lunchtime rolled around and there were still no Valentine cards - not a single one was in the little boy's envelope. "Maybe they just forgot," he said out loud to himself.

When the boy's mother picked him up from school, he walked to the car with his head down, looking at his feet. She noticed his Valentine's envelope was empty. He mumbled, "Not a single one, not a single one." When he got in the car, he again mumbled, "Not a single one." He raised his fingers one by one as if counting and said, "Not a single one." He then looked at his mother and began to smile and said, "I didn't forget a single one!"

Philippians 2:3-4 (NKJV) - Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself. Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others.
