"Change the World"

According to legend, an unknown monk wrote the following around 1100 A.D.:

When I was a young man, I wanted to change the world.

I found it was difficult to change the world, so I tried to change my nation.

When I found I couldn't change the nation, I began to focus on my town.

I couldn't change the town and as an older man, I tried to change my family.

Now, as an old man, I realize the only thing I can change is myself, and suddenly I realize that if long ago I had changed myself, I could have made an impact on my family.

My family and I could have made an impact on our town.

Their impact could have changed the nation and I could indeed have changed the world.

Changing the world is an expectation placed on each of us by Jesus Christ. As His followers, we are called to share His message of salvation with all of creation, hold ourselves to a higher standard of morality, and display genuine love to all of mankind. Through our conduct, speech, attitude, relationships, and character, we are called to be change agents for God, and, in order to fulfill this purpose, we must begin by changing ourselves.

As you examine your life, do you see a need for change? It must begin with each of us as individuals before it can infect the lives of others. As Mahatma Gandhi once said, "You must be the change you want to see in the world." May the Scenic Hills Church of Christ transform the world by transforming ourselves (Romans 12:1-2).

Thank You Notes

Dear Brethren,

Thank you for your annual contribution of $500. We appreciate churches like you who budget support for Rainbow Omega.

God has really blessed our mission here in helping families, within our brotherhood and across the state, with children like my son, Chris who is 43 years old and intellectually challenged. Our oldest resident is 85 years old and a blessing to be around as is all 80 who are in our care.

Again, thank you for being a partner in this ministry of helping those who can't help themselves.

In Christ,
Stentson Carpenter

Dear Brethren,

Thank you so much for your gift of $500 which you gave to Childhaven recently. Your help is always greatly appreciated as we provide care for our children. Your support in the work here at Childhaven is such an encouragement to us as we work together in the Lord's Kingdom. May God richly bless you.

Most Sincerely,
Dr Jim Wright
