Live By Faith Not By Fear

By Kyle Rye

An article printed in Today in the Word in the July 13, 1993 issue spoke of the crippling power of fear with the following illustration.

During his years as premier of the Soviet Union, Nikita Khrushchev denounced many of the policies and atrocities of Joseph Stalin. Once, as he censured Stalin in a public meeting, Khrushchev was interrupted by a shout from a heckler in the audience. "You were one of Stalin's colleagues. Why didn't you stop him?" "Who said that?" roared Khrushchev. An agonizing silence followed as nobody in the room dared move a muscle. Then Khrushchev replied quietly, "Now you know why."

Just as fear crippled many in the Soviet Union, it crippled the apostles during the time between Jesus' arrest and His ascension. Every one of the apostles deserted Jesus in some fashion during His arrest and trial (Matthew 26:56). Following His death, they even locked the doors when they met together for fear of the Jews (John 20:19). It was not until after Jesus' ascension and the entrance of the Holy Spirit that the apostles' fear was overcome by faith. This is evident in Peter's Pentecost sermon (Acts 2:14-36), Peter and John's courage in the face of a religious trial (Acts 4:3-13), and the disciples' prayer for boldness (Acts 4:29).

Are you living by faith or by fear? Paul told Timothy that God did not design us with a "spirit of fear" (2 Timothy 1:7), and yet all too often we choose the spirit of fear over the walk of faith. Such a choice may result in ignored responsibilities, unfulfilled potential, unused talents, unproven faith, or untaken stands. May we live according to the words of E. Stanley Jones who said, "I am inwardly fashioned for faith, not fear. Fear is not my native land; faith is."
